

"HELPING YOUR CHILD ACHIEVE THE BEST EDUCATIONAL START IN LIFE"

The Power of Play in Early Childhood Education

We are pleased to invite you to a special event, hosted by Dr. Michael Meyerhoff, former researcher with the Harvard Preschool Project and current Advisor to Romp n' Roll.

Date: Tuesday, August 3, 2010

Time: 7:30pm – 8:30pm

Location: Romp n' Roll West End (9677 W. Broad St.)

Admission: Complimentary

RSVP: Space is limited. Please call 249-5001 to reserve a spot.

Topics:

- How play-based programs allow young children to build the strongest foundations for success in school and throughout life.
- Why highly-structured academically oriented programs actually are counterproductive to desired outcomes.
- How play develops the "whole child" by nurturing imagination, creativity, social skills and self-esteem as well as cognitive abilities.
- Why "having fun" and "learning" are one and the same during the early years.
- What parents need to know in their critical role as their children's first and most important teacher.

There will be time at the end for Question and Answer with Dr. Meyerhoff.
